PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

1st. In Parts: each Part embracing as much matter as is contained in two volumes of the present editions of the Waverley Novels, which will be put at the unprecedented low price of THIRTY SEVEN AND A HALF CENTS.

2d. Two parts will appear each month; but should the publishers find the work to meet the patronage they anticipate, FOUR PARTS will be issued monthly.

3d. The whole will be completed in seven volumes, or forty eight parts.

The paper on which the above is now printing, has been made expressly for the purpose; the present parts may, therefore, be considered a fair specimen, in every respect, of the whole work; but, should dissatisfaction arise with any subscriber, owing to an inferior article being offered, he may discontinue at any time, and have the amount paid returned.

Note.—The publication of the first volume is deferred until the receipt of the Biography, Private Correspondence, and the New Edition of the Author's Poetical Works, with 'contemporary criticism—various readings—and correspondence with some of the most eminent persons of the time when the Poems first appeared,' now in the course of publication in England.

Volume 1 will be ornamented with an excellent Portrait of Sir Walter Scott.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 22, 1833.

THE RIVER is now in excellent navigable condition. Business is reviving, and our merchants and manufacturers are in good spirits—though sincerely regretting the diversion of trade to New York, and anxiously looking for the extension of our improvements to the Ohio Canal.

GENESSEE AND ALLEGHENY CANAL.—At a meeting of the citizens of New York, favorable to the construction of a Canal from Rochester, on the N. York Canal, to Olean, or Hamilton, on the Allegheny river, a committee of fifteen was appointed, to call the attention of the citizens generally to the subject, preparatory to the call of a public meeting. —The committee was subsequently increased to forty five, by the addition of two persons from each of the fifteen wards in that city.

PENNSYLVANIA CANAL.—By the following memorandum, furnished to us by the Collector, in Allegheny, it appears that the business on the western section of the canal is flourishing.

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, PITTSBURGH, October 21st, 1833.

Our Canal continues prosperous, and business increasing, as may be seen by the amount of tonnage and receipts.

The tonnage for the week ending October 19th, 1,762,262 lbs.
The amount of toll, on this line, for the same, $916,66¼

The Collector informed us that much the greater part of these tolls were paid upon boats coming from Blairsville and Johnstown; and, that boats going from this city, go very light. He thinks it very desirable that the canal commissioners should reduce the tolls on produce, going eastward, to attract such articles to the canal. We trust the commissioners will take this matter into consideration; it is, surely, much better that boats should pay half tolls on full cargoes, than go empty, or less than half loaded.—We have no doubt that a reduction of tolls on produce will not only increase the revenue from such articles, but will also enable freighters to transport merchandise cheaper, and, by thus drawing more of that species of articles, increase the aggregate of tolls arising from transportation westward.

The Collector informs us that there is not a single canal boat owned in Pittsburgh, and declares that the present number of boats will not suffice to do one half the business, after the rail road is completed.—Should not some measures be taken, immediately, to furnish the requisite number of boats? It would be truly mortifying to find, next spring, an abundance of business for the canal, and an insufficiency of boats to do it.

☞Yesterday, sentence was passed upon the persons engaged in the outrage at Avery Allyn's exhibition.—Upon Neal M'Elwayne, who was convicted of a riot, and of an assault and battery upon the person of Allyn, a fine of fifty dollars was imposed, for the former offence, and twenty dollars for the latter. Upon Pierce Brennen, who was convicted of a riot, a fine of fifty dollars was imposed; and, upon Alfred Loyd, who was also convicted of the riot, a fine of ten dollars.

In noticing the verdict of the jury, on Saturday, by mistake, we stated that the defendants had all been found guilty of the assault and battery, and M'Elwayne of the riot—we intended to say that all the defendants were found guilty of the riot, and M'Elwayne of the assault and battery also.

REMINISCENCES.—On the 22d of November, 1753, not quite eighty years ago, George Washington, then on his way to Le Bœuf, arrived at this place—then called "the Forks."—At that time there was not a single white face residing on or near this point, where so many thousand inhabitants are now living.

It may be a matter of proud recollection to Pittsburghers, that the first accurate description of this point was given by the pen of the Father of his country—the man who was truly the "best and the greatest," and that the vicinity of Pittsburgh was the field of his first fame.

There was a singular variety and contrast in the aspect of circumstances under which Washington visited this place and its vicinity, at different periods.—On the 22d of November, 1753, he arrived as the mere messenger of a single Colonial Governor, and spent some time in examining the situation of the point—all then was peace and solitude here—no thing disturbed his meditations, but the music of the feathered inhabitants of the forest.—On the 9th of July, 1755, he again approached this place, with all the "pomp and circumstance of war," under Braddock; was met with the sharp report of the rifle and fierce yell of the savage, and compelled to retreat, in haste and disorder, with a discomfited army, and a dying commander.

Again, on the 25th of November, 1758, under the command of General Forbes, he approached this point in glorious triumph, and aided in taking possession of Fort Du Quesne, which had just been abandoned by the flying Frenchmen.

And yet again, in October, 1794, as commander in chief of the army and navy of United America, he advanced towards this place, against the refractory and turbulent citizens of these western counties, and had then the glorious good fortune to reduce the misguided insurgents to obedience, and restore peace and order, without the loss of a single life, or a drop of blood.

NEW YORK, CHICAGO, AND GALENA.—The following item of intelligence, from the Galenian, a newspaper published at Galena, Illinois, on the 27th of September last, is highly interesting to the citizens of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—it furnishes another evidence to corroborate the opinion we some time ago expressed, viz: that Philadelphia might, at once, execute a release of all claim to the trade of the country lying west of the Ohio river, and north of the National Road, extended beyond the Mississippi, if she did not exert herself to secure a speedy completion of some connection with Lake Erie and the Ohio Canal.

"Chicago.—We have had the pleasure of a conversation with Mr. Frederick Stahl, of the firm of Johnson & Stahl, of this place, who returned from Chicago on Tuesday last. He informs us that he ordered goods from New York, which were shipped on the 10th, and arrived at Chicago on the 30th August. The charges for transportation from N. York to Chicago, including commissions and storage, is only $1 63 cts. per 100 pounds. Insurance 3-4 per cent. in the fall, and 1-2 per cent. at other seasons of the year. The country, from Dixon's ferry, on Rock river, to Chicago, is smooth and level, and, with little improvement, an excellent road may be made. An ox team could make a trip from thence to Galena, with great ease, in ten days. Thus we see, that merchandise can be brought from New York to Galena in thirty days, and at an expense merely nominal."

COMMUNICATED.

MEETING OF THE BAR.

Whereas, this Meeting has been informed of the death of William M'Candless, Esq., late Prothonotary of Allegheny County—Therefore,

Resolved, That as a mark of our respect for the deceased, we will wear crape on the left arm for thirty days, and will, as a body, attend the funeral of the deceased, at 4 o'clock, to morrow afternoon.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be communicated, by the Chairman of this meeting, to the family of the deceased, and that the same be published in the several newspapers of the city.

Resolved, That it be requested of the Court of Common Pleas, and District Court of Allegheny County, to have the minutes of this meeting entered upon their Record.

On motion of T. B. Dallas, Esq.,

S., of the Mayor's Court of the city of Pittsburgh, and of the several Courts of this county, and the Members of the Bar now in attendance on said Courts, be respectfully invited to join in the procession, and attend the funeral of the deceased, at the hour before designated.

Resolved, That this Meeting adjourn until to morrow afternoon, at half past 3 o'clock.

CHARLES SHALER, Chairman.

The text of a sermon produced in us lately an odd compound of reflections, with regard to the abstract and correlative value of them as used in most persuasions of the christian religion—the happy result frequently produced by their aptitude to particular instances, or incidents, and their consequently greater impression upon the minds of many who may be inattentive to the texture, or tendency, or tenor of the discourse itself, while they may have been sensibly awakened by some striking truth or application in the simple sentence conveyed in the text. But we mean not to enumerate now the excellent or happy results generally emanating from a well timed selection of some appropriate passage—these instances being many, and more commonly known: yet may we be permitted to point out one or two examples of a different tendency, which were calculated to produce equal results, though not similar.

As one of those instances we may adduce the fact told us of a Prussian clergyman, who had applied to Frederick for a benefice. The clergyman was from a provincial district, and could produce no sufficient recommendation, that was considered satisfactory, as a testimony of his character and capacity. Yet Frederick did not wish to repulse one so singularly applying, and appearing so modestly confident. He ordered him to preach next sabbath, in his chapel, a sermon, from a text which he (the king,) would give. Day after day, during the interval, passed—no text came. The sabbath morning came—but with it no text. The hour for divine service came—but no text. The young clergyman supposing that the king had forgotten to send one, collected his ideas on a particular topic, and advanced to the pulpit. Then it was he received—in the earnest gaze of all the congregation—a parcel sent from the king. Opening it he perceived a blank sheet of paper, neatly folded—and displayed it to all, saying, "On this side there is nothing; and on this side is nothing; also on this side is nothing—Out of nothing God made the world." From this text, he delivered a most excellent discourse, on the omnipotence of God. It is almost unnecessary to add that he proved successful and eminent.

When Butler, last Duke of Ormond, was passing through Wales, to assume the lieutenancy of Ireland, he was, (with some of his suite) weather-bound on the Welsh coast, and obliged to house himself with a poor clergyman, of the name of Joseph. From the kind treatment Joseph paid him, he promised largely. But ostentation seemed to have effaced gratitude; and Joseph's patience little corresponded with his poverty or his hopes. He hastened to Dublin, presented himself to Dean Swift, explained the nature of his visit and application, and was permitted to preach before the Lord lieutenant. Joseph chose his text from that in the Pentateuch, which so briefly shows the oblivious gratitude of the wealthy grown butler to the patriarch Joseph—"The butler remembered not Joseph, but forgot him, &c." The text and sermon brought the Welsh curate to remembrance; and the duke Butler gave him the first vacant benefice. By the bye, the proceeds of this benefice were allotted, subsequently, by the grateful Joseph, to his benefactor, while in exile, in France, at the commencement of the Hanoverian dynasty of England. A good deed is never lost—and many have to exclaim, with one of old—"I have lost all but what I have given away."

One or two instances more, and we have done at present. A contention having originated between a protestant clergyman, and an itinerant preacher, in England, it was agreed to be decided by a rival discourse in the clergyman's own pulpit—each to propose a text for the discourse of the other. The methodist was allowed precedence; and the clergyman gave that text which describes the condition of the Israelites, in their peregrinations between Egypt and Canaan, that their clothes waxed not old. This, the clergyman knew to be personally applicable to the preacher, who was formerly a tailor; but it afforded an excellent discourse on the special providence of God. The clergyman next mounted the pulpit, and the methodist preacher gave him, as a text, that on Balaam's ass—"And the ass opened his mouth and spake." The clergyman was dumb founded, and would not even repeat the text.

Swift preached once before the corporation of merchant tailors, on the anniversary of their Snip festival—and selected the text—"A remnant shall be saved." The tailors, not liking to be so cabbaged, never forgave the satire in the witty application.

Latest from Capt. Back.—On Thursday last four bark canoes, belonging to the Hudson's Bay Company, arrived at La Chine, near Montreal, from the interior, with passengers belonging to that concern. The latest accounts of Captain Back, by these arrivals, are up to 10th July, from Cumberland House, reporting favorably of the health and progress of the whole expedition. Capt. Back and Dr. King were proceeding in a light canoe, followed by two boats, the last bearing their luggage, provisions, and other appointments. His despatches for England were to go by the Hudson's Bay.

Meeting of Merchants.—At a very numerous meeting of the merchants of this city, convened at Wade's Hotel, on the evening of the 15th inst. to take into consideration the propriety of forming an Association, by means of which the commercial and trading community of this city may be enabled to act with united effort on all subjects relating to their interests, Thomas P. Cope, Esq. was called to the Chair, and Thomas C. Rockhill was appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been stated by the chairman, a committee was appointed to draft a constitution, which, having been presented for consideration, was adopted, and ordered to be printed.

A committee of 12 persons was appointed to receive the subscriptions of the members.

The Association then adjourned to meet at the same place on Tuesday evening, the 22d inst. to elect officers for the ensuing year.

[Signed] THOMAS P. COPE, Chairman.
THOMAS C. ROCKHILL, Secretary.—Nat. Gaz.

Captain Low, of the U. S. Army, who passed through this place last week, informed us that the Winnebago Indians, of Rock river, who were removed by Col. Dodge north of the Wisconsin, or a great part of them, have returned to their old camping ground, near the four lakes, and are engaged in gathering rice, and hunting, as formerly. They say there is no game north of the Wisconsin, and they cannot live there. They talk of planting corn next season on Rock river. We have since conversed with other gentlemen, who confirm the above statement.—Galenian, September 27.

Georgia.—The returns of the election for Governor, so far as received, give a majority for Joel Crawford—the State Rights or Nullification candidate—over Wilson Lumpkin, the present Governor, who belongs to the Union party. In Savannah, the majority was but small for Crawford, and in Augusta, he was in a minority; but the returns from some of the counties show that the exertions of the nullifiers have been successful beyond any reasonable anticipation.

Methodists in England.—The ninetieth annual Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Ministers convened at Manchester, on the 31st Aug., and terminated on the 7th Sept. The Rev. Richard Treffry was elected President, and the Rev. Edward Grindood, Secretary. The number of preachers present amounted to 430, among whom the greatest harmony prevailed. The increase of members, as stated by the President, amounts to 27,289 in the United Kingdom and in the missionary stations, of which the following is the return:

Increase of numbers in Great Britain, 23,848
In Ireland, - - - 1,504
On the missionary stations, - 1,937
Total, - - - 27,289

This is exclusive of the returns from America, where the increase amounts to upwards of 40,000 members. Canada has become so important a station, that it has been determined to send out the Rev. George Marsden to that country. Forty new candidates for the Ministry were accepted at the Conference. During the last year, 35 Ministers have died—29 in Great Britain—3 in Ireland, and 3 in foreign stations; two of the former have died since the sitting of the Conference.—Poulson.

GUNPOWDER PLOT.—The following most foul and diabolical affair is copied from the New York Journal of Commerce. Every police officer in that city, and every magistrate, should be on the alert to discover the perpetrator of this shocking attempt at murder.

Powder Plot.—About four months ago, Edward Wilcox, Esq., of Westerley, Rhode Island, and late Lieut. Governor of that state, received by a sloop from New York, a leather trunk, with a label attached, stating that it came from a relative in this city. Something, however, excited the suspicions of Mr. Wilcox, that it was not a friendly present, and cautiously raising the lid a very little, he discovered cords within, so situated as to strengthen his suspicions. He therefore set the trunk aside, until more should be known. A few days ago, some young men determined to open it. They cut the cords carefully, and opened the trunk, when it was found to contain two horse pistols, with the muzzles buried in upwards of 30 pounds of powder. The cords were attached to the triggers in such a manner that if the lid had been raised a few inches, the whole would have exploded, and dreadful must have been the effect. The pistols have been sent to this city, in the hope of tracing out the murderous villain, who, to gratify his malice against an individual, would not only have taken his life, but in all probability, the lives of a whole family.

Lord Brougham's satiric propensities and capabilities are well known; but those of his own fraternity will not much relish the last recorded exertion of the kind. He was asked his opinion of a lawyer. 'A lawyer (said he) is a learned gentleman who rescues your estate from another to secure it for himself.'—Philidelphia Sent.

Gen. Shelby, of Lexington, Ky., sold a herd of 160 mules, raised on his own plantation, for $11,840, cash in hand. This, the Lexington Intelligencer very naturally heads "Agricultural Thrift."—Poulson.

The Grand Lodge of Vermont have refused to give up their charter, by a vote of seventy four to forty.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Below we hand you an extract of a letter under date 28th August from a respectable Mercantile House in the City of Mexico, giving a list of Interments by Cholera in that city:—

"	17	1219
"	18	954
"	19	1165

It had however, at the date of this Letter, considerably abated. There have been but 250 to 300 deaths per day.

Also.—Extract of a Letter from Vera Cruz, dated 17th September.

The number of deaths by Cholera, in the City of Mexico, is estimated at 20,000; at Vera Cruz one fourth of the population.

We extract from a new book, just published in England, entitled a Treatise on the Wealth, Power, and Resources of Great Britain, taken from an official report made to Parliament, the statements of the coinage of gold and silver in all the legal mints of Mexico from the year of 1790 to 1829, inclusive, by which it will be seen there has been an immense falling off in the amount.

Our female friends may feel somewhat nervously interested in learning that the best poison discovered for decoying and destroying flies, is Souchong tea, sweetened with sugar.—Philad. Sent.

In Potter county, of this State, three rivers have their sources very near each other; and their confluent mouths at a singular distance. These rivers are the Susquehanna, the Allegheny, and the Genessee—which flow respectively into the Chesapeake Bay, the Gulf of Mexico, and the Gulf of St. Lawrence.—Philad. Sent.

The first book printed in America was at Mexico, in 1544; and was entitled Doctrina Christiana para los Indios.—Philad Sent.

Poisonous Beads.—Those beautiful red seeds with a black spot, brought from India, which are sometimes worn as ornaments of dress, are said by the natives to be so dangerous, that the half of one of them is sufficiently poisonous to destroy a man. This account, however, seems to exceed probability; but that they have a very prejudical quality, I have no doubt, for within my own knowledge I have seen an extraordinary effect of the poison of one of these peas. A poor woman, who had some of them given to her, and who did not choose to be at the expense of having them drilled to make a necklace, put the seeds into hot water till they were sufficiently soft to be perforated with a large needle; in performing this operation, she accidently wounded her finger which soon swelled and became very painful, the swelling to the whole hand; and it was a considerable time before she recovered the use of it. The botanical name of the plant that produces this pea is Abrusd precalarius.—Elements of Science of Botany, as established by Linnæus.

Loss of the Schooner Utica.—The schooner Utica, of Detroit, was capsized about twenty miles above this port, on Sunday last. It is believed there were no persons on board but the Captain and crew, who are all supposed to be lost. She came ashore near the mouth of Elk Creek, where she now lies. Her masts and sails were gone.—Her cargo, consisting of about 35 barrels of Fish, was taken out and put into Mr. Miles' Store House, at Elk Creek.—Erie Gazette, Oct. 17.

Hop Culture.—The Bangor Courier mentions that one of the packets of that place, bound for this city, recently took on board 200 bales of No 1 Hops, raised in Penobscot. The value of this quantity is $8,000, and the present prices of the article make the crop worth, on an average, $150 per acre. As the Maine soil and climate are suited to the culture, we see no reason why it should not be carried, in that, as well as other sections, much farther than it has been. In Great Britain, about 50,000 acres are occupied with hops.—Boston Journal.

Wellington, Anglesey, and Hill.—Whoever has seen the Duke of Wellington ride through the park, has seen him exactly as he looks in the hour of battle; for his manner and appearance change in nothing whatever. Even the intense attention which he pays to the scenes of war, differs little from the attention he pays to any matter of consequence that comes before him in ordinary life, as the natural energy of his character always gives an appearence of intenseness to his attention, whenever it is seriously called for. The Marquess of Anglesey is far more animated; and were Bayard to rise from the dead, in order to confer a crown for gallant soldiership, it would probably be placed on the brows of the intrepid Viceroy of Ireland.—Lord Hill is composed, and never on any occasion loses that amenity and kindness of manner that gained for him the appellation of the "soldier's friend"—as proud a title, perhaps, as any acquired during the war, for it was granted by the soldiers themselves. Whether on his Lordship's retirement from the Horse Guards, officers who have only service and merit to recommend them, will add to it the title of that of the "officer's friend," is a different question. The title has yet to be deserved, and whoever shall really deserve it, will merit well of the country, and prove himself the soldier's best friend.—Fraser's Magazine.

The following lines were distributed by Mr. Durant, the national æronaut, on his ninth ascension, which took place yesterday (14th inst.) afternoon at Baltimore.

OBSERVATORY GARDEN—FEDERAL HILL,
Baltimore, October 14th, 1833.

Farewell! Farewell! my upward flight
No longer brooks delay;
The time I've lost,—when you're in night,—
I'll gain in lengthened day.
Yon sun, which in the far west sea,
Now hurries fast to hide,
Still longer yet must toil for me,
E're pillowed with his bride.
As sinks he down, I rise on high,
His radiance to pursue;
Until, when stars deck yonder sky,
A star I'll seem to you.

There's he who on the polar sea,
Has urged his frozen way,
Where cold Auroras' brilliancy
Has darkness turned to day:
There's he, who at the Nile's far source,
A solitary stood;
And he, who traced the hidden course
Of Niger's mystic flood;
There's many a wanderer on the deep,
A traveler on the plain;—
But who, like me, can fearless sweep
Though Æther's vast domain.

I boast no steed with hoof of pride,
With war inspiring neigh;
My courser runs where wild winds guide—
Far, far, from mortal fray:
I boast no bark of mast and spars
Like those which deck the sea;
The airy waves, where float the stars,
Form ocean wide for me;
While hold the meshes of my net
Around you silken ball,
In meteor flight, I soon forget,
Ship, courser, home and all.

Farewell! Farewell! I leave behind
Earth and its gazing crowd,
To seek the fountain of the wind,
The birth place of the cloud.
I go to win the fable stand,
The wish of sage of yore,—
My country's banner in my hand,
Where flag ne'er waved before.
I go, where scarce has Eagle flown,
Where Echo never fell,—
The free and fair,—yon land,—my own
Dear native land, farewell.

BOSTON MARKETS, Oct. 14.

COFFEE.—There was rather a better feeling in market for some descriptions, at the close of the week, but we did not hear of any important transactions; offers were made for several parcels, which were not accepted. The sales at the commencement were principally St. Domingo and Rio at 12 1-2 a 12 3-4; and by auction, 12 1-4 a 12 3-4 c. per lb. 4 and 6 mo.

COTTON.—New Uplands have been sold this week at 18 c.; and New Orleans, old crop, 17 a 17 1-2 c.; our last quotations are continued.

FISH.—There have been but few arrivals of Mackerel, and those have been taken in fares at 5 3-8 a 5 1-2, 4 1-2 a 4 1-2 and 2 7-8; 1,000 bbls. No. 3, of Hingham inspection, were taken this week on speculation, at $3 per bbl.

FLOUR.—There was a brisker demand at the close for Genessee, and prices improved about 1-16 of a dollar per bbl. with considerable sales, but in Southern Flour the transactions are without interest, and, in some measure, prices are uncertain; Baltimore Howard street, per bbl., 4 mos. ct., new, $6 25 a $6 37; do. wharf do., 6 do. free of garlic.

GRAIN.—The market has sustained our quoted prices, and during the week there have been sales of 20,000 bushels corn, white, 67 a 69, and one lot, very prime, at 70c., yellow flat 69 a 72 c., and round 78 c. per bushel. Oats are improving, and sales of Southern at 40 c., and northern 42 c. A superior lot Southern Rye brought 80 c.; northern 80 a 85 c.

IRON.—There has been considerable business done in the various descriptions, at the following rates—350 tons new Sable Guerifi at $82 on 12 mos.; 80 do. do., another mark, 80 do. do.; 60 do. Swedes, $82 50 a $83, 6 mos.; 50 do. PS old Sable at $92.

MOLASSES.—The sales have been to a considerable extent; particularly distilling qualities, which embrace the principal operations of the week, and consist of 8 a 900 hhds. Havana and Matanzas, at 32 a 32 1-2, 6 mos.; about 200 hhds. Surinam at 33 1-2, 6 mos. Some small parcels Trinidad at 35 1-2 a 36 c., 6 months, and Guadaloupe at 35 c. 6 mos.

SPICES.—The entire cargo of Pepper, imported in the Liberator, consisting of upwards of 500,000 lbs., has been sold at 7 1-2 c. per lb., supposed on long credit.

SUGAR.—The transactions in Sugars have been almost entirely confined to the wants of the trade. Havana brown, 8 1-4 a 9 c., and whites, 9 1-4 a 10 1-2 c.; and Porto Rico, 8 a 8 1-2 cts., 6 mos.—Courier.

The instruments of this most extensive establishment have (for quality and volume of tone, and for materials and workmanship) received the decided approbation of the most distinguished professors of this country and Europe. The manufacturers therefore feel confident in resting their claims to public patronage upon the intrinsic merits of the Piano Fortes themselves.

☞Ladies and Gentlemen are invited to call and examine the above instruments, at Cook and Schoyer's (late Sylvester's) store, corner of Wood and Third streets, where they will remain but a short time, Mr. Taylor's stay in this place being limited. Oct. 7, 1833.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

THE Subscribers, Trustees of the New Philadelphia Society, at Phillipsburgh, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, offer for sale the following property, to wit:

1 tract of land	containing		330 acres
1	do	do	330
1	do	do	67
1	do	do	7
1	do	do	40
other lots, containing about			6

The above lands lie in one body, fronting about two miles upon the Ohio river—immediately opposite the mouth of Big Beaver creek, and the Beaver Division of the Pennsylvania Canal. The land is rich, and a part of it under a high state of cultivation—its location pleasant and healthy. The improvements upon the same are valuable, including the town of Phillipsburgh, late the residence of Count Leon, and the New Philadelphia Society. The town contains about 40 Dwelling Houses, now in order; some of them brick houses and two stories high. A large and spacious Hotel, a Store house, Church, a number of Shops, for mechanics, Stables, Barns, and other out houses. Also, two large new buildings, lately erected, but not yet finished, one of brick, the other of frame (the latter suitable for a manufactory) a very extensive public garden, and also fruit trees of various kinds. The property has also attached to it the right of a ferry across the Ohio, which is valuable, and becoming more so every day.

The above property is situated in the midst of a wealthy and prosperous country, distant about 28 miles below Pittsburgh, and one mile from Beaver, the seat of justice for Beaver county---and having a view for many miles up and down the Ohio, and of the country to a great distance around.

The subscribers are confident in saying that few situations could be found, presenting greater facilities to the farmer, mechanic, the manufacturer, and others--- a soil rich and productive---the neighborhood abounding in coal---well timbered and watered, and, by means of the Pennsylvania Canal, and steamboat navigation, a cheap and ready conveyance to market, and a communication with other places is ensured.

The property is susceptible of divisions into farms, or for the location of new towns, or for the extension of the present one.

Should it not be sold on or before the first day of January next, it will then be offered at public sale, upon the premises, to the highest and best bidder.

It will be sold in a body, or in parcels, to suit purchasers.

Terms of sale will be reasonable.

Information can be had by enquiring of the subscribers, two of whom live in the neighborhood, and one on the premises.

PERIODICALS.

AMERICAN RAILROAD JOURNAL, and Advocate of Internal Improvements, which is designed as a repository of the accounts of the rise and progress of numerous works of Internal Improvement, in the United States particularly, and in other parts of the world generally. The work is published weekly, and forms a large octavo volume each year, of 832 pages of 3 columns each, for $3 per annum, in advance.

New York Farmer, and American Gardener's Magazine. This work is designed for the agriculturist, and will be found to contain much, both interesting and profitable, to those who cultivate the soil as a business, or merely a garden for amusement. Published in monthly parts of 32 large octavo pages, with three columns each, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Mechanics' Magazine, and Register of Improvements and Inventions. To the Mechanics of the United States---In this populous and enlightened country, almost every description of persons can obtain knowledge and amusement connected with their peculiar pursuits, through the medium of the Journal or Magazine, especially devoted to their interests. The Theologian, the Farmer, the Philosopher, the Sportsman, and even the Plough Boy, has each his Journal, where he can find a record of the passing events of the day, connected with his peculiar avocations and recreations. Hitherto, the Mechanics (who form a large and most important portion of the community) have had no Journal, to which they could turn, with the certainty of finding that information they desire, no periodical of which they could say: 'This is ours, and for us.' In the hope that the attempt to supply such a want at a price so reasonable as to be within the reach of all, will meet with your active support, the subscriber proposes to publish, on the first day of each month, a Mechanics' Magazine. It will contain a well digested selection of the most useful and interesting articles in the London Mechanics' Magazine, London Register of Arts and Sciences, Repertory of Inventions, Library of Useful Knowledge, Journal of the Franklin Institute, and other works, connected with the arts and manufactures, published in this country and in Europe, accompanied with numerous and well executed Engravings. Its pages will be open for the communications of all, and especially for those of the practical artisan, to whose interest it will be particularly devoted. The Mechanics' Magazine will contain, also, a due portion of the occurrences of the month, Scientific and Literary Reviews of Books, Anecdotes, Economical Receipts, Reports of the state of Mechanics' Institutions, and other Scientific Societies in this state and other countries. To be published monthly. Each succeeding number will contain 64 pages, handsomely printed, and stitched in a neat cover. Six numbers will form a volume, for which an index and title page will be supplied, and also a Portrait of some distinguished Mechanic, as a Frontispiece. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S
☞ WELCH MEDICAMENTUM. ☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes giving temporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
